We can always rely on Hibernian Recruitment. The speed and quality with which qualified candidates are presented to us speaks for itself. Thanks to the good pre-selection of their recruiters, we have not yet had an interview with an applicant who did not fit the position or our company values at all. Our contact person knows exactly what and who we are looking for. Communication is simple, clear and fast, which makes our work much easier.

I highly appreciate that Hibernian invest a lot of people, as well as the role we are recruiting candidates not only with a strong fit for our development culture. It is a pleasure working with the team and their candidates.
